

Lucy Becker

Is a public affairs and policy professional who has lived in East Toronto for over 25 years. While she currently serves as an executive with the Retirement Homes Regulatory Authority, her experience also includes the Law Society of Ontario and the Ministries of the Attorney General and Solicitor General. She has worked tirelessly to help those in need as evidenced by her work to expand victim services, community policing, and access to legal services for vulnerable communities. Currently, she serves on the Board of the College of Physicians and Surgeons and is an adjudicator on their Discipline Tribunal. She is also on the Board of the Bereavement Authority of Ontario and the National News Media Council. In addition, she serves on the Financial Services Regulatory Authority Consumer Advisory Panel and on the Electrical Safety Authority Consumer Advisory Committee. A member of the DVCLS Board since June 2021, Lucy also serves on the Corporate Resources Committee.